Read more comments about this agreement:

Frida Tydén, HR-professional, Lantmännen: "Lantmännen's increasing internationalization and globalization plans were the driving force in our search for a language and communications partner. After an evaluation and qualification process, Lantmännen chose GMS for several reasons. We value quality and good relationships with our customers very highly and GMS's long list of satisfied customers as well as their flexibility was a key factor in our decision process. Their global presence as well as their ability to deliver on a local level were also very important."

Kathy Falk, MD Northern Europe: "GMS Language Services and Lantmännen are two similar organizations in their approach to customer's satisfaction and quality. Both put the client in focus, always searching for innovation and ways to improve their services & products. The opportunity to work together with Lantmännen in helping develop their expansion and globalization successfully is a great privilege!"
